

Martyrdom of the Báb

Martyrdom of the Báb

Bahá'í

Bab

This holiday commemorates the 1850 execution of the co-founder of the Bahá'í faith, the Báb. His teachings are the foundation of the Bahá'í faith.

The Martyrdom of the Báb is one of nine holy days during which work and school is suspended.

This collection of information sheets on major holidays and cultural events is a joint partnership of the School of Information staff, the Office of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion, and the Office of the Provost. Facts have been vetted by U-M's Association of Religious Counselors (ARC), and other campus groups. Public feedback is welcome; please email DEIHolidayFacts@umich.edu.

Date

- The date varies year to year. The Bahá'í day ends and a new one begins at sunset; consequently, the day on which a Feast or Holy Day is observed begins at sunset of the day before the Gregorian calendar dates listed.
