

Happy Ridván!

Ninth Day of Ridván

Bahá'í

RIZ-von

Nine days after Baha'u'llah arrived at the Garden of Ridván he was joined by his family. Friends came to greet Baha'u'llah and to bid him farewell. Communities around the world celebrate their most holy festival: Ridván; it is a very joyous day.

The Ninth Day of Ridván is one of the nine holy days in the year where work is suspended.

This collection of information sheets on major holidays and cultural events is a joint partnership of the School of Information staff, the Office of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion, and the Office of the Provost. Facts have been vetted by U-M's Association of Religious Counselors (ARC), and other campus groups. Public feedback is welcome; please email DEIHolidayFacts@umich.edu.

Date

- The date varies year to year. The Bahá'í day ends and a new one begins at sunset; consequently, the day on which a Feast or Holy Day is observed begins at sunset of the day before the Gregorian calendar dates listed.
